2014 Ferdinand Albariño (26.99) Napa Valley

Light gold color; balanced and attractively fragrant; a savory and floral wine with orange peel and lime zest, lemongrass, quince and grapefruit aromas and flavors. Lees aging in neutral oak gives the wine finesse, sophistication, and a hint of nuttiness - a pleasing complement to the variety's balance of natural acidity, slight bitterness, and salty finish.

2014 Tyler Santa Barbara County Pinot Noir (34.99)

This is not a vintage about power, but of grace and sophistication. Extremely mineral with notes of crushed rock, bright cherry, wet earth, and game.

2014 Sparkman 'Holler' Cabernet Sauvignon (32.99) Columbia Valley, Washington

Following the bombastic 2013 would seem intimidating, but the 2014 Holler is more than ready to take on the world. Led by supple, concentrated black and blue fruit, buoyed by silky tannins, and showing pencil lead, violets, Herbes de Provence, dark chocolate and cassis, Holler is a thunderous response to the storm created by the 2013.
